A Tradition of Habitat Builds

Take heart. Take part.

And So Much More to Connect Us

Dear friends,

We've all had lots of balls in the air. Can we handle one more thing? Each of us is juggling new unknowns this fall as the Delta variant upends the real expectations we had for a smooth "return to normal."

But our Holy Spirit community can do this. So can you. We are weary yet resilient, trusting God and filled with hope. Our church is innovating with new and exciting ministries and new ways to keep us connected. What's not new is the solace and rejuvenation you can find here.

You're invited to be part of virtual services that draw on nature's beauty (back this fall), in-person Sunday worship in the sanctuary, outreach efforts like our new work with Rio Grande Borderland Ministries and the tradition of our Habitat builds, plus a range of small group gatherings for prayer, Bible study or service.

Reconnect with Holy Spirit

Thank you for your faithfulness.

Your support for Holy Spirit both financially and in so many other ways has been exceptionally strong over the last year. Our stewardship effort this year asks us to look ahead with the same sense of optimism and flexibility that sustained us last year and will carry us forward.

Let's celebrate this Church of the Holy Spirit and all that draws us together. Now is a good time to think about your commitment for 2022. Look for more information online and coming in your mail. Ingathering Sunday is November 7.

Today, I invite you to Take Heart and Take Part—renew at Holy Spirit—as we work through another demanding season with love, compassion and hope.

Thank you for your faithfulness,

Terri+
